Welcome to the Advanced Arabic Grammar II course (Arab 361)! This course is designed to provide Arabic language learners the opportunity to develop their grammar knowledge, build on previously learned vocabulary, and be exposed to a variety of themes in culture and daily life situations. We will learn grammar in context through literary texts and media materials, including short stories, autobiographies, and news reports from different parts of the Arab world. A pre-requisite for this class is Arab 360, Arab 301, or instructor approval.

This is an online, asynchronous class open to students from SDSU and other CSU campuses.
