SPRING 2019
KOREAN CIVILIZATION

KOR 321-GE (21934)
Mon: 4:00-6:40pm, AH-2134

Lecturer: Sueyun Kim Affiliated Faculty, Korean Studies Program, Linguistic & Asian/Middle-Eastern Languages
Center for Asian and Pacific Studies

Exploring Korea’s Past, Present and Future in Our World
Its prominent role in terms of History, Religion, Politics, Society and More

Tradition, Development, Transformation and Culture

Sueyun Kim has spent years living in Asia as a researcher, scholar, journal editor, and a teacher; she is a Ph. D. candidate in International Studies at Seoul National University, specializing in International Relations, History, Asian Region and Korea-U.S. Relations and has Masters in Korean Studies from The Academy of Korean Studies

*Picture: Dongdaemun Design Plaza (동대문디자인플라자, DDP)