36th ANNUAL KYOCERA JAPANESE SCHOLARSHIP
FOR
THE ACADEMIC YEAR OF 2020-2021

The Japanese Language Program in the Department of Linguistics and Asian/Middle Eastern Languages at San Diego State University is pleased to announce a generous contribution from Kyocera International, Inc., as a scholarship for an outstanding student of Japanese. This Kyocera Japanese Scholarship, with a stipend of $1,500, will be awarded on the basis of competition with the following rules.

2. An applicant must be an officially matriculated student at SDSU at the time of application.

3. Minimum GPA: 2.75

4. General Application: To apply, go to sdsu.edu/scholarships, log in using your SDSUid, and complete the general Application between March 1 and 9. You must submit your General Application in Aztec Scholarships no later than Monday, March 9, 2020, which is prior to the start of the Japanese Essay Writing Session dates.

5. Japanese Essay Writing: All applicants must write an essay (handwritten) in Japanese in SHW-237 covering the following points:
   - Why do you think that you deserve this scholarship?
   - How has the study of Japanese enhanced your major?
   - How will the study of Japanese impact your career?

   The essay should not be more than 1200 characters (not more than three sheets of genkooyooshi 原稿用紙). Genkooyooshi is available in SHW-237.

   Essay in Japanese must be hand written at SDSU Linguistics Department’s Conference Room (Storm Hall West-237) from March 10 and 14. More details are announced on a separate flyer.
